

Building Families:

Mindy Berkson, Founder, Lotus Blossom Consulting, LLC

Mindy Berkson has more than a decade of experience in the infertility field. As one of the first infertility consultancies in the United States, Lotus Blossom Consulting, LLC was founded by Mindy Berkson in 2005 after her own personal battle with secondary infertility. Mindy has guided hundreds of intended parents through the stressful demands of the infertility process by providing professional and compassionate assistance in dealing with the emotional, physical, and financial barriers involved with third-party reproduction.

With more than a decade of experience at physician's offices, and egg donor and surrogacy agencies, Mindy's continued research and invaluable professional experience enables her to truly be a resource for clients around the world, and most importantly to provide an insider's approach past the often-challenging roadblocks of infertility.

Berkson has been featured in several national and regional women's and special interest publications, web forums, and books related to infertility -- and does numerous speaking engagements throughout the year to help de-stigmatize infertility and its countless complicated issues. Mindy has written a popular online e-book, Financing Your Infertility Treatment, and is currently piloting Fit To Conceive a fertility fitness program with celebrity trainer and best-selling author Jim Karas, for women who want to lose weight in order to improve their chances of conception.

Knowledgeable, compassionate, and insightful, Berkson is able to speak extemporaneously on a topic that is often emotionally fraught. Berkson presents technical, medical options, insurance, and financial information in a way that is supportive, concise, and easily understood.
